CHAPTER 1: The AFF

ARTICLE 1

TITLE, LEGAL FORM, HEADQUARTERS, LANGUAGE AND CREST

1. The organisation shall be called the “Persekutuan Bolasepak ASEAN” in the Malay language or the “ASEAN Football Federation”, in the English language. The abbreviated name of the organisation is “AFF”.
2. The AFF is an association registered pursuant to Section 7 of the Societies Act 1966 of the Laws of Malaysia.
3. AFF is a Regional Association recognized by the AFC comprising Member Associations as per Article 7.10 and Article 14 of the AFC Statutes.
4. (1) The headquarters of the AFF shall be at Level 6, Tribeca Residensi (Suite 627), No. 215, Jalan Imbi, 55100 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia or such other address as may subsequently be decided by the Council and approved by the Registrar of Societies.
(2) Subject to the approval of the Registrar of Societies, the AFF may establish a branch in a country other than the country where the headquarter of the AFF is situated.
5. The official language of the AFF shall be English. Each Association shall be responsible for its own translation.
6. Subject to any change as decided by the Council, the crest of AFF shall include a black and white football depicting a geographical representation of the ASEAN region and Australia supported by twelve arms representing the 12 Member Associations of the AFF and the words “ASEAN Football Federation” on top of the football. The colours of the AFF shall be black, white, and orange.

7. Subject to any change as decided by the Council the flag of the AFF shall contain the crest of the AFF situated in the centre over a blue background.

ARTICLE 2

OBJECTIVES AND OBLIGATIONS

1. The objectives of the AFF are to:
 - a. To improve, develop and promote Football in the Members' Region in the light of fair play and its unifying, educational, cultural, and humanitarian values, particularly through youth and development programmes.
 - b. To protect the interests of its Member Associations and to foster friendly relationships between and amongst its Member Associations, Football Associations, FIFA, the AFC, other Regional Associations across Asia and recognized by AFC in order to stage inter-regional tournaments and competitions and other organisations.
 - c. To organise and manage Football competitions, training and conferences of all types and categories in the Region as well as development projects and workshops.
 - d. To use its efforts to ensure that the game of Football is available to and resourced for all who wish to participate in the Region regardless of gender or age.
 - e. To draw up regulations and provisions governing the game of Football and all related matters and ensure their enforcement, at all times in accordance with the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA and the AFC.
 - f. To promote women's Football, including its development, and to advance full inclusion of women throughout all types of Football and at all levels in the Region, including in governance and technical roles.
 - g. To promote integrity, ethics, and fair play with a view to preventing all methods or practices, such as corruption, doping or match manipulation, which might jeopardise the integrity of matches, competitions, players, officials and Member Associations or give rise to the abuse of Football.
 - h. To institute strong measures and campaigns against bribery, corruption, drugs, and racism in Football in the Region.
 - i. To associate with the ASEAN Secretariat in furtherance of the common objectives of ASEAN through cultural and sporting activities.
 - j. To raise funds to finance activities of the AFF.
 - k. To purchase, hold or otherwise acquire any real property or any interest in the same which shall be for the benefit of the Federation, or calculated to promote or assist in the promotion of any of the objectives of the Federation as the Council may deem advisable.

- I. To improve, develop, manage, mortgage, lease, let or sell any real or personal property of the Federation and to turn the same to profit and advantage in any way that the Council may deem advisable.
- m. To do such things and apply such funds as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objectives.
- n. To make regulations and by-laws as deemed necessary for the implementation of the objectives of the Federation.
- o. To form Standing Committees as the Council deems necessary.
- p. To work in partnership with Member Association or the League of Member Association to promote and organise Professional League as well as to engage in football related business.

2. The obligations of the AFF are:

- a. To comply fully with the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA and the AFC, and relevant decisions of the CAS, at all times and to use its best endeavour to ensure that these are also respected by its Member Associations.
- b. To ensure the election of its decision-making bodies.
- c. To convene its supreme and legislative body at regular intervals, at least once a year.
- d. To submit its Statutes, rules, and regulations (as revised from time to time) to the AFC for approval prior to ratification, and to ensure that its Statutes, rules, and regulations comply with the principles of good governance and all AFC recommendations.
- e. To cooperate and work in close collaboration with the AFC and FIFA in all spheres in order to attain the objectives of the AFF, and to take part in activities or programmes organised by the AFC if requested.
- f. To respect the Laws of the Game as laid down by the IFAB, as well as the Futsal Laws of the Game and the Beach Soccer Laws of the Game issued by FIFA, and to ensure that these are also respected by its Member Associations.
- g. Not to maintain any relations of a sporting nature with entities that are not recognised by FIFA and/or the AFC or with Football Associations that have been suspended or expelled from FIFA and/or the AFC.
- h. To observe the principles of loyalty, integrity, and good sporting behaviour as an expression of fair play.
- i. To comply with these Statutes, as well as all other rules and regulations of AFF, at all times.

- j. To notify FIFA and the AFC promptly of any change in its address and in the name of its principal office bearers.
- k. To manage its affairs independently and with no influence from any third parties.
- l. To invite the AFC to attend the Congress.
- m. To use its best endeavours to organise all AFF competitions in compliance with the AFC and FIFA international calendar.

ARTICLE 3

HUMAN RIGHTS, NEUTRALITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 1. The AFF is committed to respecting all internationally recognised human rights and shall strive to promote the protection of these rights.
- 2. The AFF is neutral in matters of politics and religion.
- 3. Discrimination of any kind against a country, private person or group of people on account of race, skin colour, ethnic, national or social origin, gender, disability, language, religion, age, physical appearance, political opinion or any other opinion, wealth, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason is strictly prohibited and punishable by suspension or expulsion.
- 4. Harassment of any nature (including sexual harassment) is forbidden.
- 5. The AFF shall attribute particular attention to the protection of minors throughout all types of Football and all related activities.
- 6. The AFF shall manage its affairs independently and with no influence from third parties.

ARTICLE 4

PROMOTING FRIENDLY RELATIONS

- 1. The AFF shall promote friendly relations between its Member Associations, Clubs, Officials and Players and in society for humanitarian objectives.
- 2. Every person and organisation involved in the game of Football is obliged to observe the Statutes, Regulations, and the principles of fair play as well as the principles of loyalty, integrity and sportsmanship.
- 3. The AFF shall, in accordance with these Statutes, provide the necessary institutional means to resolve any dispute that may arise between Member Associations, Clubs, Officials and Players on the territory of the AFF.

ARTICLE 5

LAWS OF THE GAME

1. The AFF and Member Associations shall organise and/or play:
 - a) Association Football in compliance with the Laws of the Game issued by the International Football Association Board (IFAB) . Only the IFAB may lay down and alter the Laws of the Game.
 - b) Futsal in accordance with the Futsal Laws of the Game as issued by FIFA; and
 - c) Beach Soccer in accordance with the Beach Soccer Laws of the Game as issued by FIFA.

ARTICLE 6

CONDUCT OF PERSONS AND ORGANISATIONS

1. Every person and organisation directly or indirectly bound by these Statutes must observe these Statutes and all regulations, directives, and decisions of the AFF, as well as the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of FIFA and the AFC, as well as the principle of fair play.

ARTICLE 7

MEMBERSHIP

1. The Congress, upon recommendation of the Council made after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any, of the AFC, shall decide whether to admit, suspend or expel a Member Association.
2. Any football association which is responsible for governing and supervising football in all of its forms in its country or territory may become a Member Association.
3. The Member Associations shall be geographically located in the ASEAN region and Australia.
4. Only one (1) Football Association shall be officially recognised by the AFF in each country or territory, as per the AFC Statutes.
5. Membership is terminated by resignation or expulsion. Loss of membership does not relieve the Member Association from its due financial obligations towards the AFF or other Member Associations but leads to cancellation of all rights in relation to the AFF.

ARTICLE 8

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

1. The membership admission application may be examined by the AFC.
2. The AFC may request the AFF Congress to approve or to reject the application.

3. An Association applying for membership shall submit a written application together with its statutes and regulations, to the Federation.
4. The application for membership shall contain the following undertaking: -
 - (i) To conform to the Statutes, Regulations and Standing Order of AFF, FIFA and the AFC.
 - (ii) To observe the Laws of the Game as laid down by the International Football Association Board (IFAB).
 - (iii) Each Association shall inform the Federation of the name and address of the person responsible for conducting, on its behalf, official correspondence.

ARTICLE 9

RIGHTS OF MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

1. The Member Associations of AFF have the following rights:
 - a) to take part in the Congress, to know its agenda in advance, to be called to the Congress within the prescribed time and to exercise their voting rights.
 - b) to draw up proposals for inclusion in the agenda of the Congress.
 - c) to nominate candidates for all bodies of the AFF that are subject to election.
 - d) to be informed of the affairs of the AFF through the official bodies of the AFF.
 - e) to take part in the AFF competitions, through their representative teams and clubs and/or other activities or programmes organised by the AFF; and
 - f) to benefit from the rights and privileges granted to them by these Statutes and applicable Regulations.
2. The exercise of such rights shall be governed by the provisions of these Statutes and all applicable regulations.

ARTICLE 10

OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

1. Member Associations have the following obligations:
 - a) To comply fully with the regulations, statutes, circulars and decisions of FIFA, AFC and AFF and Decisions of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) passed in accordance with Article 55 and/or 56 of the AFF Statutes at all times and to ensure that these are also respected by its members.

- b) to ensure the election of its decision-making bodies.
- c) to take part in competitions and other activities or programmes organised by the AFF in particular key competition, activities or programme.
- d) to pay their membership subscriptions.
- e) to respect the Laws of the Game as laid down by The IFAB as well as the Futsal Laws of the Game and the Beach Soccer Laws of the Game as issued by FIFA and to ensure that these are also respected by its members through a statutory provision.
- f) to adopt a statutory clause specifying that any dispute requiring arbitration involving itself or one of its members and relating to the Statutes, Regulations, Directives and Decisions of FIFA, AFC and the AFF shall come solely under the jurisdiction of the appropriate arbitration tribunal recognised by the AFF, AFC and FIFA and that any recourse to ordinary courts is prohibited.
- g) not to maintain any relations of a sporting nature with entities that are not recognised by FIFA and the AFC or with Member Associations that have been suspended or expelled.
- h) to observe the principles of loyalty, integrity, and good sporting behaviour as an expression of fair play through a statutory provision.
- i) to observe the mandatory items specified within the relevant Regulations for the duration of their membership.
- j) to administer a register of members which shall regularly be updated.
- k) to recognise each of the other Member Associations as the sole controlling body of Football in their respective countries and territories.
- l) to be held responsible for the good conduct and all financial commitments of their Clubs towards the AFF.
- m) to notify AFF promptly of any change in its address and in the name of principal office bearers; and
- n) to manage its affairs independently and with no influence from any third parties, even if such third-party influence was not the fault of the Member Association concerned.

2. Violation of the above-mentioned obligations by any Member Association may lead to sanctions provided for in these Statutes. Each Member Association is responsible towards AFF, FIFA and the AFC for all acts of the members of their bodies caused by the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such members.

ARTICLE 11

SUSPENSION

1. The Congress may suspend a Member Association solely at the request of the Council made after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any, of the AFC.
2. The Council may, after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any, of the AFC, without a vote of the Congress, temporarily suspend with immediate effect a Member Association that seriously violates its obligations or that of the FIFA or the AFC. The temporary suspension approved by the Council shall last until the decision made at the next Congress unless the Council has revoked such suspension prior to the Congress with an approval of AFC if the request for suspension was made by the AFC.
3. A suspension of a Member Association by the Congress requires a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.
4. A suspension of a Member Association by the Council or at the request of the AFC shall be confirmed at the next Congress by a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote. If it is not confirmed, such suspension shall be automatically lifted.
5. The Congress may lift the suspension of a Member Association at the request of the Council after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any, of the AFC. The lifting of the suspension of a Member Association by the Congress requires a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.
6. A suspended Member Association shall lose its membership rights. Other Member Associations shall not entertain sporting contact with a suspended Member Association.
7. Member Associations which do not participate in at least two (2) of the AFF's competitions (as determined by the Council) over a period of two (2) consecutive years immediately prior to a Congress shall be suspended from voting at the Congress until they have fulfilled their obligations in this respect.

ARTICLE 12

EXPULSION

1. The Congress may expel a Member Association at the request of the Council made after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any, of the AFC, or if :
 - (i) It defaults in the payment of dues and/or debts to the Federation.
 - (ii) It seriously infringes its own statutes, codes, rules, regulations and standing orders or those of the AFC or FIFA and/or that of the Federation.
 - (iii) It loses its status as the controlling body for football in its territory.

- (iv) If it hinders the progress of football within the Federation.
- (v) It ceases to be a Member of FIFA due to an expulsion

2. The presence of an absolute majority (more than 50%) of the Member Associations eligible to vote at the Congress is necessary for a vote to expel a Member Association to be valid.
3. The motion for expulsion must be adopted by a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.

ARTICLE 13

RESIGNATIONS

1. Subject to Article 13.2, a Member Association may resign from the AFF with effect from the end of a calendar year. Notice of resignation shall be in letter form and must reach the General Secretariat no later than six (6) months before the end of the calendar year by registered post or attached to the official email of the Member Association. The resignation shall be made absolute by way of a letter from the AFF sent by registered post or by the email to the Member Association and when the Member has fulfilled its financial and other obligations towards the Federation and its Members.
2. Resignation shall not affect any existing financial obligations towards the AFF or its Member Associations.

ARTICLE 14

STATUS AND RECOGNITION OF MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

1. The executive body of a Member Association shall be elected by the Congress, even on an interim basis, within the Member Association. The statutes of a Member Association shall provide for a democratic election procedure that guarantees the complete independence of the election.
2. The AFF shall not recognise the executive body of a Member Association, even on an interim basis, if it has not been elected in accordance with Article 14.1, except if the executive body is established as a normalisation committee by FIFA, in consultation with the AFC.
3. Only decisions passed by bodies that have been constituted in accordance with Article 14.1 and 14.2 may be recognised by the AFF.

ARTICLE 15

STATUS OF CLUBS, LEAGUES, DOMESTIC ASSOCIATIONS AND OTHER GROUPS OF STAKEHOLDERS AFFILIATED TO A MEMBER ASSOCIATION

1. Clubs, Leagues, Domestic Associations or any other groups of stakeholders affiliated to a Member Association shall be subordinate to and recognised by that Member Association.

The Member Association statutes shall define the scope of authority and the rights and duties of these Clubs and groups. Their statutes and regulations must be approved by the Member Association.

2. Every Member Association shall ensure that its affiliated Clubs and groups take all decisions on any matters regarding their membership independently of any external body. This obligation applies regardless of their corporate structure.
3. In any case, the Member Association shall ensure that no natural or legal person (including holding companies and subsidiaries) exercise third-party control in any manner whatsoever (in particular through a majority shareholding, a majority of voting rights, a majority of seats on the board of directors or any other form of economic dependence or control etc.) over more than one (1) Club or group whenever the integrity of any match or competition could be jeopardised.

ARTICLE 16

HONORARY APPOINTMENTS

1. The Congress may confer the following Honorary appointment on individuals for meritorious services rendered to the AFF upon the recommendation of the Council
 - a) Honorary President;
 - b) Honorary Vice President;
 - c) Honorary Member; and/or
 - d) Honorary General Secretary
2. Honorary officials may attend and participate in the Congress without the right to vote.

ARTICLE 17

AFF ORGANISATION REGULATIONS

1. The Council shall establish AFF Organisation Regulations to support and supplement these Statutes if required.

ARTICLE 18

BODIES

1. The Congress is the supreme and legislative body of the AFF.
2. The Council is the executive body of the AFF.
3. The General Secretariat is the administrative body of the AFF.

4. The Standing and Ad Hoc Committees shall assist the Council in the performance of its duties in accordance with these Statutes. The members of the Standing Committees shall hold office over a four-year period until the next Elective Congress.
5. The Independent Committees of the AFF are the Disciplinary and Ethics Committee, the Appeal Committee, and the Electoral Committee. They shall fulfil their responsibilities and functions in accordance with these Statutes and the applicable AFF regulations.
6. The independent auditors shall perform all audits of the AFF's accounts and financial statements as required by Malaysian law.
7. The AFF may from time to time establish other bodies which it deems necessary for the development of football in the Region.
8. The bodies of the AFF shall be either elected or appointed by the AFF itself without any external influence and in accordance with the procedures described in these Statutes.

CHAPTER 2: THE CONGRESS

ARTICLE 19

DEFINITION AND COMPOSITION OF THE CONGRESS

1. The Congress is the meeting at which all Member Associations of the AFF convene. It must be held annually. It represents the supreme and legislative authority of the AFF. Only a Congress that is duly convened has the authority to make decisions.
2. A Congress may be an Ordinary or Extraordinary Congress.
3. The President shall conduct the Congress business in compliance with the Standing Orders of the Congress.
4. If the circumstances so require, the Congress may be convened by videoconference or in a Hybrid manner. In such a case, the Congress may deliberate and make any decisions, and it shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a Congress duly convened and held in person. However, any Congress held by videoconference shall not be able to decide on any matter involving the election of any office-bearer as that may only be done in person by secret ballot.
5. The honorary officials appointed in accordance with Article 16.1 may take part in the Congress. They may join the debates but are not entitled to vote.
6. Representatives of the AFC shall take part in the Congress without voting rights.

ARTICLE 20

DELEGATES AND VOTING

1. Each Member Association shall have one (1) vote and is entitled to be represented by a maximum of two (2) delegates to participate in the Congress. One (1) of the two (2) delegates shall exercise the right to vote on behalf of the Member Association.
2. The names of the delegates must reach the General Secretariat at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the Congress indicating the delegate authorised to vote.
3. No delegate shall be allowed to represent more than one (1) Member Association. Only the authorised delegates who are present are entitled to vote. In the event that a Congress is held virtually or in a Hybrid manner, attendance by video conference or by any other means of communication shall constitute presence. Voting by proxy or by letter is not permitted. When a Congress is held in a Hybrid manner, by teleconference, by video conference or by another means of communication, voting online is permitted.
4. Delegates must belong to the Member Association that they represent and be appointed or elected by the appropriate body of that Member Association. They must also be able to produce evidence of this upon request.

5. The Council at its discretion invite any person or persons to the Congress who may attend and participate in the Congress without voting rights.
6. The Council and the General Secretary shall take part in the Congress without voting rights.
7. During their term of office, Members of the Council shall not be appointed as delegates for their Member Association.

ARTICLE 21

AREA OF AUTHORITY

1. The Congress has the following authority:
 - a) adopting or amending the Statutes, Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes and the Standing Orders of the Congress.
 - b) appointing three (3) Members to check the minutes and approving the minutes of the current Congress (cf. Article 26);
 - c) electing the Council (cf. Article 31);
 - d) electing the independent committee upon the proposal of the Council ;
 - e) appointing the scrutineers (cf. Article 26);
 - f) approving the financial statements.
 - g) approving the budget.
 - h) approving the General Secretary's annual report.
 - i) appointing the independent auditors upon the proposal of the Council.
 - j) fixing the membership subscriptions.
 - k) deciding, upon the nomination of the Council, whether to confer honorary titles;
 - l) admitting, suspending or expelling a Member Association at the request of the Council made after consultation with or after having considered the request, if any of the AFC;
 - m) revoking the mandate of one or a number of members of a body of AFF.
 - n) dissolving the AFF; and
 - o) consider and act upon proposals submitted by a Member Association or the Council in accordance with these Statutes.

ARTICLE 22

QUORUM OF THE CONGRESS

1. The quorum for the Congress shall be the simple majority (more than 50%) of the Member Associations who are entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 23

DECISIONS OF THE CONGRESS

1. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Statutes, a proposal or motion shall be passed if supported by a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast.
2. Blank ballot papers, spoilt or invalid votes or electronic votes manipulated in any way as well as abstention shall be disregarded in calculating the majority.
3. A decision that requires a vote shall be reached by a show of hands or by means of an electronic count save in cases of elections which shall be carried out in accordance with the AFF Electoral Code. If a show of hands does not result in a clear majority in favour of a proposal or motion, the vote shall be taken by calling the roll in alphabetical order.

ARTICLE 24

ELECTIONS

1. The AFF Electoral Code and any relevant AFC and FIFA regulations shall govern any elective Congress.
2. The election of office-bearers at the Congress shall be by secret ballot. Where a candidate has no opponent for the seat, they may be elected by acclamation. No voting by letter or proxy is permitted.
3. The position of the President shall be elected as follows:
 - a) where there are two (2) candidates on the first ballot, a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast of the Member Associations who are present and eligible to vote is necessary; and
 - b) where there are more than two (2) candidates on the first ballot, two-thirds (2/3) of the votes of the Member Associations who are present and eligible to vote are necessary. Should no candidate receive two-thirds (2/3) of the votes on the first ballot, all candidates move to the second ballot. From the second ballot (if required) onward, a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast of the Member Associations who are present and eligible to vote is necessary. If no candidate is elected, the candidate obtaining the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated from the subsequent ballot. This process shall continue (if required) until two (2) candidates remain and a simple majority is achieved.

4. All other positions listed in these Statutes shall be elected as follows:
 - a) Where there is one (1) position available on the first ballot, a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast of the Member Associations who are present and eligible to vote is necessary. If no candidate is elected, the candidate obtaining the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated from the subsequent ballot. All subsequent ballots shall require the same simple majority to be achieved. This process shall continue until two (2) candidates remain and a simple majority is achieved.
 - b) Where there is more than one (1) position available on the first ballot, a simple majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast by the Member Associations who are present and eligible to vote is necessary. Where:
 - i) At least one (1) candidate is elected but not all positions are filled, all remaining candidates shall move into the subsequent ballot.
 - ii) No candidate is elected, the candidate obtaining the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated from the subsequent ballot;
 - c) All subsequent ballots shall require the same simple majority to be achieved. This process shall continue until two (2) candidates remain and a simple majority is achieved
5. The Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, and members of the Independent Committees shall be elected by the Congress by a simple majority (more than 50% percent).

ARTICLE 25

ORDINARY CONGRESS

1. The Ordinary Congress shall be held annually.
2. The Council shall fix the place and date. Notice of the Ordinary Congress shall be posted to all Member Associations under registered letter, courier service or electronic medium not later than four (4) months before the scheduled date of the Congress unless decided otherwise by the Council.
3. The General Secretary shall, not later than twenty-one (21) days before the date of the Congress, mail to the Member Associations by registered cover the following:

- 3. The motion to amend and/or alter the agenda of an Ordinary Congress must be adopted by a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.

ARTICLE 27

EXTRAORDINARY CONGRESS

- 1. An Extraordinary Congress may be convened:
 - a) by the Council whenever deemed necessary.
 - b) in the event the office of the President falls vacant for more than one (1) year; or
 - c) upon a written request of at least one-third (1/3) of Member Associations within sixty (60) days of receipt of the written request.
- 2. The date and venue shall be determined by the Council and notified to the Member Associations at least thirty (30) days before the Extraordinary Congress.
- 3. When an Extraordinary Congress is convened on the initiative of the Council, it must draw up the agenda. When an Extraordinary Congress is convened upon the request of Member Associations, the agenda must contain the points raised by those Member Associations.
- 4. The motion to amend and/or alter the agenda of an Extraordinary Congress must be adopted by a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.

5. An Extraordinary Congress shall be conducted in the same manner as the Ordinary Congress.

ARTICLE 28

AMENDMENT TO THE STATUTES, REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE APPLICATION OF THE STATUTES AND THE STANDING ORDER OF THE CONGRESS

1. Only the Congress may amend or alter the Statutes, the Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes and the Standing Orders of the Congress.
2. Proposals to amend or alter the Statutes may either be submitted by:
 - (i) a Member Association and seconded by one (1) other to the General Secretariat; or
 - (ii) the Council.

The proposals submitted shall be in writing with a brief explanation.

3. Proposals to amend the Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes and the Standing Orders of the Congress may be submitted by:
 - (i) a Member Association to the General Secretariat; or
 - (ii) the Council.

The proposals submitted shall be in writing with a brief explanation.

4. All amendments and alterations to the Statutes shall only be adopted with the approval of three-quarters (3/4) of the votes cast by the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.
5. All amendments to the Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes and/ or the Standing Orders of the Congress shall be adopted only with the approval of a simple majority (more than 50%) of the votes cast by the Member Associations present and eligible to vote.
6. The presence of an absolute majority (more than 50%) of the Member Associations eligible to vote at the Congress is necessary for a vote to amend or alter the Statutes, Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes, Standing Orders of the Congress to be valid.
7. No amendments to the Statutes, Regulations Governing the Application of the Statutes and/ or the Standing Orders of the Congress shall be made without the prior approval of the Registrar of Societies and an application for any amendment shall be made to the Registrar within sixty days from the date of the decision to make the amendment.

ARTICLE 29
MINUTES

1. The General Secretary shall be responsible for recording the minutes at the Congress. The minutes shall be checked by those members designated and finally approved at the next Congress.

ARTICLE 30
EFFECTIVE DATES OF DECISIONS

1. Decisions passed by the Congress shall come into effect thirty (30) days after the close of the Congress unless the Congress fixes another date for a decision to take effect.

CHAPTER 3: THE COUNCIL, THE EMERGENCY COMMITTEE AND THE PRESIDENT

ARTICLE 31

CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNCIL

1. The Council shall consist of :

- (a) President – One (1)
- (b) Vice Presidents – Four (4)
- (c) AFC Executive Committee Member (Representing AFF) – One (1)
- (d) Council Members – Five (5)
- (e) Female Council Member – One (1)
- (f) General Secretary (ex-officio without voting right)

The election shall follow the order set out above for the positions listed in Articles 31.1 (a) to (e).

- 2. The Council shall consist of twelve (12) members elected from amongst the candidates nominated by the Member Associations for the positions in Article 31(1)(a) to (e).
- 3. Upon being elected, every member of the Council undertakes, and accepts responsibility, to act in the best interest of the AFF faithfully, loyally, and independently and the promotion and development of football in the Region.
- 4. Members of the Council shall serve the term of four (4) years and are eligible for re-election. They shall serve no more than three (3) full terms of office (whether consecutive or not). Therefore, members of the Council shall not serve the AFF for more than twelve (12) years in total. A member of the Council shall not at the same time be a member of any of the independent committees.
- 5. No person shall be elected to the office of President for more than three (3) full terms (whether consecutive or not). Accordingly, the person elected to the office of President shall not serve the AFF as a President for more than twelve (12) years in total. The term or terms served on the previous AFF's Council and the term to be served till its full term in 2023 shall not be considered in determining the term limit of a President.
- 6. Every candidate nominated is required to submit the relevant documents to the General Secretariat for verification in accordance with the AFF Electoral Code.
- 7. Candidates for the position of AFC Executive Committee must pass an eligibility check carried out by AFC in accordance with the AFC Statutes and applicable AFC regulations.
- 8. Candidates for the position of President would be required to pass an eligibility check, of the same level as AFC eligibility check, carried out by the AFF Electoral Committee.

9. Subject to Article 37.2 which relates to candidates for the office of the AFF President, every candidate nominated to the Council for election must be by name and shall be proposed by their Football Association in the prescribed forms. Such nomination shall be submitted to reach the General Secretariat not later than three (3) months before the date of the Congress. Each nomination must be in accordance with the further provisions contained within the AFF Electoral Code.
10. Without prejudice to each Member Association's rights under Article 37.2 which relates to candidates for the office of the AFF President, a Member Association may propose only one (1) candidate for each position in the Council. If a Member Association proposes more than one (1) candidate for a position in the Council, all candidates proposed by that Member Association for that position shall be declared invalid. If at the expiry of the deadline for nomination, no nominations have been received for the position set out in Article 31.1 (e) or a nomination received for the position set out in Article 31.1 (e) is in addition to any one of the positions in Article 31.1 (a)-(d), then all Member Associations who have not nominated a candidate for the position under Article 31.1.(e) shall do so within seven (7) days of being notified. For the avoidance of doubt, the additional time being provided under this provision to submit their nominations for the post set out in Article 31.1 (e), in addition to the nominations already filed by them will not be in violation of the timeline provided in Article 37.9 of these Statutes.
11. No Member Association shall be eligible to be represented by more than one (1) member in the AFF Council. This shall include the member referred to in Article 31.1 (c) of these Statutes.
12. All candidates must be persons who have served football in various capacities at club, regional, national, or international level and citizens of the country represented by their respective Football Association.
13. The General Secretariat shall notify the Member Associations of the names of proposed candidates at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the Congress.
14. The Deputy President shall be appointed by the Council upon the proposal of the President from amongst the elected Vice Presidents. In the absence of an appointment, the longest-serving Vice President shall be deemed to be the Deputy President.
15. If the President ceases to carry out or is prevented from performing her/his duties, the Deputy President shall deputise and assume the powers and responsibility of the President until the next Congress subject to the provisions of Article 27.1 (b).
16. If a position is vacant, the Council, upon the proposal of the President, shall fill that position until the next Ordinary Congress or Extraordinary Congress (if applicable), when a replacement will be elected for the remaining term of mandate. For the avoidance of doubt, the individual who fills that vacancy shall not have the right to vote.

17. If any member of the Council as set out in Article 31.1 ceases to carry out his duties within his Member Association, the Member Association may propose for his removal from the AFF Council, and he may be replaced by the decision of the Congress or Extraordinary Congress.

ARTICLE 32

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL

1. The Council shall be empowered to make decisions on all matters, which are not exclusive to the Congress or are not reserved for other bodies by law or under these Statutes, including the release of the funds of the AFF towards the fulfilment of its objectives.
2. The duties of the Council are as follows:
 - a) to carry out the objectives of the AFF.
 - b) to prepare and convene the Ordinary and Extraordinary Congress of the AFF.
 - c) to ensure that the Statutes are applied, and adopt the executive arrangements required for their application.
 - d) to approve regulations stipulating how the AFF shall be organised internally.
 - e) to formulate the Rules, Regulations, Standing Orders, and Instructions of the AFF.
 - f) to appoint the Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, and members of the Standing Committees.
 - g) to propose to the Congress the individuals to be elected or dismissed as Chairpersons, Deputy Chairpersons, and members of the Independent Committees.
 - h) to set up ad-hoc committees, if necessary, at any time.
 - i) to approve and submit to the Congress the following:
 - i) the reports of the General Secretary and the various Committees and bodies.
 - ii) the Statement of Accounts and the Auditor's Report.
 - iii) the budget.
 - iv) all proposals for amendments and alterations to the AFF Statutes, AFF Regulations Governing the Application of the AFF Statutes and Standing Orders of the Congress of the AFF.
 - v) the appointment of the External Auditors; and

- vi) other proposals submitted by the Council members in accordance with these Statutes;
- j) to appoint and dismiss the General Secretary on the proposal of the President.
- k) to relieve a person of their duties in accordance with Article 40.9; and
- l) to provisionally dismiss a person or body or provisionally suspend a Member Association until the next Congress on the request of the AFC.

3. The powers and responsibilities of the Council may be defined in greater detail within the AFF Organisation Regulations.
4. The Council may delegate tasks arising out of its areas of authority to the President, other bodies of the AFF or third parties.

ARTICLE 33

MEETINGS AND DECISION

1. The Council shall stipulate the terms of reference of the Council, standing orders for meetings and its ability to make decisions within the AFF Organisation Regulations. If the circumstances so require, the President may convene the Council meeting via teleconference, videoconference, Hybrid meeting or another means of communication. In such a case, the Council may deliberate and make any decision, and it shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a Council meeting duly convened and held in person.
2. The Council shall meet at least once every year.
3. The President shall convene the Council meetings. If fifty percent (50%) of the Council members request a meeting or if the President deems it necessary, the President shall convene it within twenty-one (21) days.
4. Any member of the AFF Council who is absent without a properly accepted apology by the Council for two (2) consecutive meetings or any four (4) meetings during their term shall be provisionally suspended from the AFF Council. A decision shall then be made by the AFF Congress, at the next AFF Congress, which shall be final. Before voting on such a matter, the member of the AFF Council concerned shall be given the opportunity to explain himself or herself in person or in writing.

ARTICLE 34

DISMISSAL OF A PERSON OR BODY

1. The Congress may dismiss a person or body. The Council may place the dismissal of a person or body on the agenda for the Congress. The Council may also dismiss a person or body provisionally until the following Congress. Any Council member may submit a proposal to place such a motion for dismissal on the agenda of the Council.

2. The motion for dismissal must be accompanied by written reasons. It will be sent to the Member Associations of the AFF along with the agenda.
3. The person or body in question has the right to defend himself in front of Council and or the Congress.
4. The Congress shall reach a decision by means of secret ballot. For the motion to be passed, a majority of two-thirds (2/3) of the valid votes in favour of the motion is required.
5. The person or body dismissed (provisionally) must be relieved of their functions with immediate effect.

ARTICLE 35

EMERGENCY COMMITTEE

1. The Council shall stipulate the terms of reference of the Emergency Committee, standing orders for meetings and its ability to make decisions via teleconference, video conference, Hybrid meeting or another means of communication within the AFF Organisation Regulations. If the circumstance so require, the President may convene the Emergency Committee which may deliberate and make any decision, and it shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at an Emergency Committee meeting duly convened and held in person.
2. The Emergency Committee shall deal with all matters requiring immediate settlement between meetings of the Council. The Emergency Committee shall consist of:
 - a) the President;
 - b) the four (4) Vice Presidents; and
 - c) one member appointed by the Council
3. The President shall convene the Emergency Committee meetings.
4. Decisions of the Emergency Committee shall have immediate effect. The President shall notify the Council immediately of the decisions passed by the Emergency Committee.

ARTICLE 36

THE PRESIDENT

1. The President represents the AFF generally.
2. The President shall aim to foster a positive image of AFF and to ensure that the AFF's mission, strategic direction, policies and values, as defined by the Council, are protected and advanced.

3. The President shall seek to maintain and develop good relations between and among AFF, Regional Associations, AFC, FIFA, the Confederations, Member Associations, Stakeholder groups, political bodies and international organisations.
4. The President chairs the Congress and meetings of the Council and Emergency Committee. The President shall have one (1) ordinary vote on the Council and the Emergency Committee and, whenever votes are equal, shall have a casting vote.
5. The President shall be an ex officio member in all Standing Committees without the right to vote.
6. The President shall propose a Deputy President from amongst the four Vice-Presidents. If the President is absent or unavailable, the Deputy President shall deputise.
7. The powers and responsibilities of the President may be defined in greater detail in the AFF Organisation Regulations.
8. The President may delegate tasks arising out of his areas of authority to the Council and to the General Secretariat.

ARTICLE 37

CANDIDATES FOR THE OFFICE OF THE AFF PRESIDENT

1. The President shall be elected by the Congress for a period of four (4) years. The mandate shall begin after the end of the Congress which has elected him. A President may be re-elected subject to the provisions of Article 31.
2. Candidates for the position of President shall be valid only if nominated by one Member Association and seconded by another Member Association (but not necessarily the Member Association that they represent).
3. Candidates for the position of President shall have played an active role in Football (e.g. as a Player or an Official within FIFA, a Confederation, a Regional Association or an Association) for two (2) of the last five (5) years before being proposed as a candidate.
4. Any Member Association that wishes to nominate a candidate for the position of President must submit the prescribed form to the General Secretariat not later than three (3) months before the date of the Congress. Each nomination must be in accordance with the further provisions contained within the AFF Electoral Code.
5. The General Secretariat shall notify the Member Associations of the names of proposed candidates for the office of the President at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the Congress.

CHAPTER 4: THE GENERAL SECRETARIAT

ARTICLE 38

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

1. The General Secretariat shall carry out all the administrative work of the AFF under the direction of the General Secretary. Members of the General Secretariat shall abide by AFF's internal regulations and shall carry out the tasks entrusted to them in the best possible manner.

ARTICLE 39

THE GENERAL SECRETARY

1. The General Secretary shall be the Chief Executive of the General Secretariat and shall work under the direction of the President and the Council.
2. The General Secretary shall be appointed and dismissed by the Council upon the proposal of the President. The General Secretary shall report to the Council.

CHAPTER 7: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

ARTICLE 53

COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS)

1. The AFF recognises the independent Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) with headquarters in Lausanne (Switzerland) to resolve disputes between the AFF and the Confederations, Regional Associations, Member Associations, Leagues, Clubs, Players, Officials, Intermediaries and licensed match agents.
2. The provisions of the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration shall apply to the proceedings.
3. The CAS shall apply the various regulations of the AFF.

ARTICLE 54

DISPUTES

1. The Member Associations shall agree to recognise CAS as an independent judicial authority and to ensure that their members, affiliated Leagues, Clubs, Players and Officials comply with the decisions passed by CAS. The same obligation shall apply to Intermediaries and licensed match agents.
2. Recourse to ordinary courts of law is prohibited unless specifically provided for in any FIFA, AFC or AFF Regulations. Recourse to ordinary courts of law for all types of provisional measures is also prohibited.
3. Any violation of this Article shall be sanctioned in accordance with these Statutes.

ARTICLE 55

DISPUTES OF NATIONAL DIMENSION

1. Member Associations shall insert a clause in their statutes or regulations stipulating that it is prohibited to take disputes within the Member Association or disputes affecting Leagues, Clubs, members of Clubs, Players, Officials and other Member Association Officials to ordinary courts of law, unless FIFA regulations, AFC regulations, AFF regulations or binding legal provisions specifically provide for or stipulate recourse to ordinary courts of law.
2. Such disputes in the last instance shall be referred to an independent and duly constituted arbitration tribunal recognised under the rules of the Member Association or to the CAS.
3. Member Associations shall ensure that the stipulation in Article 55.1 is implemented within the Member Association, if necessary, by imposing a binding obligation on its members. Member Associations shall impose sanctions on any party that fails to respect this obligation and ensure that any appeal against such sanctions shall likewise be strictly submitted to arbitration, and not to ordinary courts of law.

ARTICLE 56

JURISDICTION OF CAS AS AN ORDINARY COURT OF ARBITRATION

1. CAS shall have jurisdiction, to the exclusion of any ordinary court or any other court of arbitration, to deal with the following disputes in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration:
 - a) disputes between the AFF and Confederations, Regional Associations, Member Associations, Leagues, Clubs, Players and/or Officials; and
 - b) disputes of international dimension between Member Associations, Leagues, Clubs, Players and/or Officials.
2. CAS shall only intervene in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration if the dispute does not fall within the competence of an AFF body.

ARTICLE 57

JURISDICTION OF CAS AS AN APPEALS ARBITRATION BODY

1. Any final decision made by an AFF body may be disputed exclusively before CAS in its capacity as an appeals arbitration body, to the exclusion of any ordinary court or any other court of arbitration.
2. Recourse may only be made to CAS after all other internal AFF channels have been exhausted. Appeals shall be lodged with CAS within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the decision in question. The relevant AFF regulations may contain further stipulations or amend this time limit.
3. CAS does not deal with appeals arising from:
 - a) violations of the Laws of The Game;
 - b) suspensions of up to four (4) matches or up to three (3) months (with the exception of doping decisions);
 - c) decisions which any Regulations declare as final and binding and not appealable; or
 - d) decisions against which an appeal to an independent and duly constituted arbitration tribunal recognised under the rules of a Member Association may be made.
4. The appeal shall not have a suspensive effect. The appropriate AFF bodies, or alternatively, CAS may order the appeal to have a suspensive effect.
5. Only parties directly affected by a decision may appeal to CAS.

6. AFC, FIFA and the World Anti-Doping Agency are entitled to appeal to CAS against any internally final and binding doping-related decision passed by the AFF.

CHAPTER 8: MISCELLANEOUS

ARTICLE 58

FINANCES

1. The financial period of the AFF shall be one (1) year and shall commence on 1 January of each year.
2. The revenue and expenses of the AFF shall be responsibly managed, including where appropriate the creation of reserves.
3. The General Secretary is responsible for drawing up the annual consolidated accounts of the AFF with its subsidiaries as of 31 December every year.

ARTICLE 59

REVENUE

1. The revenue of the AFF arises specifically from:
 - a) Member Associations' annual subscriptions.
 - b) receipts generated by the marketing of rights to which the AFF is entitled.
